The Gunner

The bullets lay on the muddy terrain,
As I stood still equipped with a
Rifle, bayonet and one solitary grenade.
There was a deafening silence.
No sound.
No movement.
Nothing except for the thumping of our hearts and
The slow sound of our frozen breath.
As the whistle screeched,
Aggressively I ran towards opportunity,
To achieve glory.
Clambering,
Scuttling,
Charging over the top,
Immediately I pulled the trigger
Facing the single gunner.
He was armed with a vicious machine gun;
His face full of determination to kill us all.
My colleagues thud heavily to the ground.
My friends were yet another dead soul.
I was next, and for a few moments everything was blank;
I saw dead bodies, zooming bullets and an angry man firing a machine gun!
After that... nothing, I was gone! I am lifeless!
