Dear Parents/Carers,

Royal Wedding Celebration

On Friday 18th May we are planning to celebrate the upcoming Royal Wedding of Prince Harry to Meghan Markle, with a school street party as part of our British Values work.

The children will spend the morning explaining maths and English in a practical way as they make party hats, bunting and planning their party, with Maple class producing scones for the school. In the afternoon the children will be able to sample the scones as part of an afternoon celebration on the playground.

We would like to invite the children to wear red, white or blue clothes into school this day.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely
